

Liberty PAY Mobile Payments

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is P97 Networks?

P97 was founded in 2011 and Headquartered in Houston, TX. Their mobile commerce solution, PetroZone®, went live with mobile payments in March 2014. Current customers other than Liberty Petroleum include Shell, Conoco, Phillips 66, Sinclair Oil and Gulf Oil. Liberty Petroleum went live in January 2017 with sites rolling out throughout 2017 and 2018. P97 also has a connect car platform through GM and others including Amazon Alexa Auto.

What advantages in the marketplace will P97 deliver me?

PetroZone enhances relationships with existing consumers and attracts new consumers to increase in-store sales and margins, minimize wait times, influence the purchase journey and increase consumer loyalty. Drive more business to your store by encouraging the 70% that never go into the c-store. PetroZone includes mobile pay-at-the-pump and in-store transactions, and a merchant portal that allows retailers to create digital offers and fuel discounts for mobile users.

What POS Systems does P97 support?

P97 currently supports Verifone (Base 44.00 and higher), Gilbarco (11.01.G and higher, 11.04B for Heartland) and Fiscal TravStar1 systems. Others are being worked on and interfaces will be completed soon.

How can I view the Liberty PAY app?

Liberty Petroleum's mobile App, "Liberty PAY", can be downloaded and viewed from the App Store or Google Play store.

Is Liberty PAY secure?

P97 is PCI certified (Level 1 ROC). No cardholder data or PII (personally identifiable information) is stored in the retailer or P97's environments. Because mag-stripe cards are not swiped, zip code prompting and skimming are eliminated.

How much does Liberty PAY cost?

P97 can get you into mobile payments for ~ $1000 in year 1, and ~ $500 in years 2+. Digital offers and fuel discounts are an add-on service available at $99 per site per year (not to exceed $1000 for multiple sites owned by the same retailer). Fees are prepaid for the upcoming 12 months.

Who can I contact for an agreement or questions?
